

Solar power system hardware

Overview

To go solar, you'll need solar panels, inverters, racking equipment, and performance monitoring equipment--at a minimum. Depending on where you live, you may also consider a solar battery. Check each product page for other buying options. Component Quality Drives Long-Term Value: While premium components like monocrystalline panels and MPPT charge controllers cost 10-15% more upfront, their superior efficiency (15-24% vs 13-17%) and longer lifespans (25-30 years) often provide better return on investment, especially in. Solar hardware covers a wide range of technology, from individual components of a solar panel or concentrating solar power plant, to inverters that allow solar panels to feed energy back into the electricity grid, to the racking structures found on rooftops and utility-scale solar installations. But different product options and brands can. Find solar panel mounting kits & hardware at Lowe's today.
